

2012 MEMBERSHIP

Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence (OAESV) is a statewide coalition of organizations, institutions, and individuals throughout Ohio committed to the elimination of all forms of sexual violence.

OAESV provides support, advocacy, policy information, and training/technical assistance to organizations and individuals committed to ending sexual violence and to advocating for the rights and needs of survivors and co-survivors of sexual violence. For more information about OAESV, please visit www.oaesv.org or email info@oaesv.org.

ABOUT MEMBERSHIP:

Annual OAESV membership offers tangible benefits such as technical assistance, training, education materials, current news updates as well as opportunities and resources for effecting public policy changes to prevent sexual assault and improve systemic responses for survivors. Additionally, OAESV offers the critical component of building bridges of collaboration between those who work directly with survivors and allies alike in order to strengthen the collective voices of those working together to influence the movement toward the elimination of sexual violence in Ohio.

- Annual membership is open to public/private organizations, government entities, and individuals.
- OAESV envisions a broad, diverse and multi-disciplinary membership.
- Membership to OAESV is tax-deductible. OAESV will not share member information to 3rd party entities.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS:

- Access to OAESV Resource Library, training and technical assistance
- Member-only Newsletters
- Sexual Assault Awareness Month packet and materials
- Notification of special events
- Legislative Alerts

Membership Committee

Regional Representatives serve a critical role and communication vehicle of the Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence. Regional representatives must be current members and will be nominated and voted in by OAESV membership in mid-2012. At least one seat on the OAESV Board of Directors will be available for a regional representative voted in by membership and approved by the Board. OAESV recognizes five regions in Ohio: Southeast, Southwest, Central, Northwest and Northeast. Regional Representatives are part of the Membership Committee and will be responsible for providing important regional updates.
